

Jason H. Ehrenberg

Partner

Jason H. Ehrenberg is a partner with Bailey & Ehrenberg PLLC. His nationwide practice focuses on employee benefits, employment and higher education law and litigation. Jason has particular expertise litigating claims under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (“ERISA”). This includes defending claims for breaches of fiduciary duties, pension benefits, long term disability benefits, and ERISA withdrawal liability, among others. Jason also regularly advises pension plan sponsors, administrative committees, trustees and other plan fiduciaries with regard to their fiduciary obligations under ERISA. Jason was recently selected for inclusion in the 2012 Washington, D.C. *Super Lawyers**®* in the areas of Employee Benefits/ERISA and ERISA Litigation.

Jason has significant first-chair jury and bench trial experience. This includes his recent successful defense of multiple plan fiduciaries, a plan sponsor and a cash balance pension plan in an ERISA fiduciary litigation in which all claims against all defendants were dismissed after a six-day bench trial. Jason also has significant experience in appellate litigation, having recently handled ERISA and employment matters in the United States Courts of Appeals for the Third, Fourth, Ninth and District of Columbia Circuits.

Jason also maintains a nationwide Higher Education Law practice, and regularly counsels university administrators, professors and graduate students with regard to all aspects of their relationships with institutes of higher education. Jason regularly appears on the American Association of University Professors list of recommended attorneys.
